Bartending

Ontario College Certificate

Program Code: 0298X01FWO

14 Weeks

Ottawa Campus

Our Program

Get the competitive edge with the perfect mix of theory and hands-on experience.

In this 14-week Bartending Ontario College Certificate program, you gain the practical dexterity and professional development skills you need to become a professional bartender. Obtain five-star service instruction from industry professionals with real-world advice and guidance.

Gain applied skills in cocktail artistry and beverage service, and learn the principles and practices of bar management in our fully-stocked, multi-station mixology and wine-tasting labs. Through sampling and tasting, expand your palate and develop an appreciation for the complexity and diversity of spirits, liqueurs, beers and wines. It is the perfect blend of theory and hands-on experience to achieve competitive edge for your bartending career.

During the Bartending program, earn certificates that give you a competitive edge when job hunting, including the Smart Serve certificate, Draft Beer Quality certificate, and Workplace Violence and Harassment certificate. Smart Serve is a mandatory certification for serving alcohol in licensed establishments in Ontario.

Expand your real-world experience with a field placement in an Ottawa bar, restaurant or nightclub. This placement gives you the opportunity to network with industry contacts.

There is a demand for qualified bartenders in today's hospitality industry. You may find employment as a bartender in:

- restaurants
- convention centres
- resorts
- bars
- hotels
- cruise ships
- nightclubs

With further training, you may advance to positions such as bar or food and beverage manager. You must be 19 years of age to apply to this program.

Course Descriptions

ENL1813H Communications I

Communication remains an essential skill sought by employers, regardless of discipline or field of study. Using a practical, vocation-oriented approach, students focus on meeting the requirements of effective communication. Through a combination of lectures, exercises, and independent learning, students practise writing, speaking, reading, listening, locating and documenting information, and using technology to communicate professionally. Students develop and strengthen communication skills that contribute to success in both educational and workplace environments.

Prerequisite(s): none

Corerequisite(s):none

FLD2191 Field Placement

Gain hands-on experience in a community bar, lounge or Algonquin College's Restaurant International. Students demonstrate their communication, professionalism, deportment and teamwork skills.

Prerequisite(s): none

Corerequisite(s):none

FOD2106 Wine Food and Restaurant Service

Restaurant service involves the service of food, wine and other beverages, as well as the preparation of tables for service, taking orders, clearing tables, calculating bills and taking payments. Through real-time restaurant experience, students review and apply food service theory with an emphasis on the working relationship between the dining room and the kitchen and customer relations.

Prerequisite(s): none

Corerequisite(s):none

HOS2061 Bar Cost Control and Regulations

Professional bartenders are expected to operate a cost-efficient bar. Students practise applying internal controls using relevant software. A strong emphasis is placed on the responsibility of proper alcohol service in conjunction with Ontario liquor and labour laws. Through the Smart Serve certificate course and Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System (WHMIS) certificate, students acquire the knowledge needed in order to be responsible alcohol servers.

Prerequisite(s): none

Corerequisite(s):none

HOS2066 Fundamentals of Beer, Wine and Spirits

A sound product knowledge of spirits generally used in the bar industry is essential for bartenders. Topics such as methods of production, dominant flavours and common uses are covered. Sampling and taste analysis allows students to develop a deeper appreciation of the complexity and diversity found among spirits, liqueur, beer and wine.

Prerequisite(s): none

Corerequisite(s):none

HOS2080 Mixology Practical

Bartenders exhibit a high degree of manual dexterity in the production of popular cocktails. Students adapt to various bar setups and become familiar with a variety of beverage products, equipment and trends in the bar industry. Students produce alcoholic beverage transformations that require experimentation with traditional and molecular mixology techniques. Base-infused carbonated syrups and practical applications with spherification, gels and foams are developed.

Prerequisite(s): none
Corerequisite(s):none

HOS2082 Customer Relations

Good customer service within the hospitality and tourism industry is based on knowledge of how to interact with customers in a variety of situations and contexts. Students develop strong customer relations skills founded in effective communications and body language, and the ability to deal with customer complaints. Students explore beverage promotional strategies through the use of social media, digital applications and local merchandising opportunities in the context of cocktail and event execution within the greater Ottawa area. Through the Draught Beer Quality certificate course, WVH (Workplace Violence and Harassment) certificate and Customer Service Standard training, students acquire the knowledge needed in order to provide exceptional service within a safe working environment. Interview, employment and team building strategies are also highlighted.

Prerequisite(s): none
Corerequisite(s):none

HOS2288 The Dinner Party

Table manners are as unique to a culture as the foods they eat - how people eat varies widely from country to country. Participants in this course explore the culture and customs of international dining practices. Through investigation, discussion and reflection, participants have the opportunity to raise their own and each other's awareness and sensitivity to different cultural behaviours and customs. Over scheduled lunches and dinners, participants consider the influence of culture, society, religion, geography and history on dining practices around the world.
